

Present Perfect Continuous - Conjugation

Affirmative

I've been reading a lot.

You've been reading a lot.

She's been reading a lot.

He's been reading a lot.

It's been raining a lot.

We've been reading a lot.

You've been raining a lot.

They've been raining a lot.

Negative

I haven't been reading a lot.

You haven't been reading a lot.

She hasn't been reading a lot.

He hasn't been reading a lot.

It hasn't been raining a lot.

We haven't been reading a lot.

You haven't been reading a lot.

They haven't been reading a lot.

Interrogative

Have I been reading a lot?

Have you been reading a lot?

Has she been reading a lot?

Has he been reading a lot?

Has it been reading a lot?

Have we been reading a lot?

Have you been reading a lot?

Have they been reading a lot?